District No. 0-2 - Northern Ohio - William A. Bohnard, Director

- - - - -

Project No. 0-2-11 - DR. P. H. FULSTOW HOMESTEAD, W. Main Street, Norwalk, Ohio.

In 1843 the house was built by a Mr. E. Sturgiss around a one-room log cabin, which, upon completion, became the dining room. The remains of the log cabin were entirely removed when the house was completely renovated in 1920.

The original house had Ionic columns on the front porch. But these were replaced with octagonal columns on pedestals of a later date.

The present owner is Dr. P. H. Fulstow, who renovated the house completely before moving in in 1920. The house is in good condition at present.
